1. [ALABAMA] [POLITICAL CARTOONS & CARICATURE]

The Democratic Party Is Calling You! White Supremacy For The Right

[Birmingham]: Democratic State Campaign Committee, [1930]. Quarto (28cm). Single sheet, folded to make 4pp. Printed on newsprint. Paper aged, with brief chips at margins; two horizontal folds for mailing; Very Good.

Campaign brochure for the contentious 1930 Alabama elections, in which a number of Klan-funded Democrats broke away from the party to run as Independents. The Independents lost, and the event marked a pivotal moment in the consolidation of old-line Democratic power in the state, which would go unchallenged until the Civil Rights conflicts of the Sixties.

The current illustrated brochure, produced by the main-line Democrats, was intended to show that despite rejection of KKK support the Party remained staunch in its support of the principle of White Supremacy. First page provides brief text and lists members of the Party's Executive Committee and Honorary Vice Chairmen (among whom was future Supreme Court justice Hugo Black); remaining three pages reproduce ten captioned political caricatures lampooning the campaign tactics of the apostate Democrats and the Republicans. An unusual item; not located in OCLC.

2. ALLEN, Marilyn R.

White Man! What of the Night?

Salt Lake City: By the author, [1959]. Gate-fold leaflet, 15cm x 14cm. Single sheet folded to make 6pp. Printed on newsprint. Slightly tanned, else Near Fine.

Anti-integration tract by the author best-known for her 1949 screed Alien Races and Mongrelization. "...since the warren Court's communistic race-mixing decision was admittedly NOT based in and on the Constitution (nor on precedent), but on alien socialistic doctrine and Organized Minority pressure, it is therefore null and void." Not located in OCLC.

3. [AMERICAN ANTI-COMMUNIST MILITIA]

Broadside: Emmett Till Is Alive

Kansas City: American Anti-Communist Militia, [1955]. Small broadside, ca. 22cm x 14cm (8-1/2" x 5-1/2"). Printed recto-only in black ink on yellow laid paper. Faint creases and pencil markings; Near Fine.

Contends that "Nigger" Till was "...whisked away into hiding by the NAACP," is still alive and well in California, and that the entire Till incident was "...a hoax created by the Jewish inspired NAACP to implement racial hatred." An iconic document of the Civil Rights era, pictured in Metress, The Lynching of Emmett Till: A Documentary Narrative (2002). OCLC gives two locations, under a slightly variant title.

4. [AMERICAN NAZI PARTY] National Socialist White People's Party
Broadside: Special Rights for Black Savages??

Arlington, VA: National Socialist White People's Party, N.d. [after 1968]. Broadside, 11" x 8.5", printed recto only on newsprint. Slightly tanned with 1" loss at upper right margin, not affecting text; Good.

Recruiting broadside for the NSWPP, the successor organization to George Lincoln Rockwell's American Nazi Party. Gives headquarters address as 2507 North Franklin Road, Arlington, VA, where the group moved following the assassination of Rockwell.

$75 ORDER

5. [AMERICAN NAZI PARTY] ROCKWELL, George Lincoln
This Time the World

Glendale: Parliament House, 1963. Octavo (22cm). Original cloth-covered boards; 440pp; illus. Second, slightly expanded edition. No dustjacket (as issued). A quite presentable copy of this cheaply-produced book. Text tanned, as is unavoidable with this title; endpapers darkened from binding adhesive; still a tightly bound, well-preserved copy, Very Good. Includes many photographic text illustrations (halftones).

Scarce self-published autobiography of George Lincoln Rockwell (1918-1967), founder and first Fuehrer of the American Nazi Party. In addition to covering the high points of his life, the author here lays out his plans for putting a permanent end to "Jew-treason and race-mixing." Rockwell, strongly influenced by Joseph McCarthy, drifted into far-right politics following a successful naval career in WWII. He was assassinated in 1967, reputedly by a former follower.

The first two editions of This Time The World were hand-assembled by Rockwell and his associates in batches of no more than a few hundred copies; as they were printed and bound using materials comparable in quality to the ideas contained in them, very few of these early printings have survived. SINGERMAN 1059.

6. [ANTISEMITIC PROPAGANDA] American Jewish Committee
To Bigotry No Sanction: A Documented Analysis of Anti-Semitic Propaganda

New York: The American Jewish Committee, 1944. 12mo. Staple-bound pamphlet. Illustrated card wrappers; 80pp. Mild dusting; Near Fine.

A systematic exposé, issued during the height of anti-Nazi sentiment in the U.S., of American anti-Semitic activities in the realms of economics, the Arts, etc. Includes a 2-pp bibliography.

7. BONNER, J.S. [John] (ed)
K. Lamity's Harpoon. Ten Issues, 1908-1909

Austin, TX: J.S. Bonner, 1908-9. Ten monthly issues. Each quarto (ca. 29cm), staple-bound self-wrappers; 40pp per issue. Varying wear to covers, but each issue complete and generally in Very Good or better condition.

Includes Vol. 6 # 1 (March 1, 1908); 6-7, 9-12; Vol 7 # 1-3 (May 1, 1909).

Ten representative issues of this idiosyncratic, deeply racist and intentionally controversial monthly paper, published from 1903 to 1925. Bonner (1856-1935), whose prose style is reminiscent of fellow Texas iconoclast William C. Brann (albeit with a decidedly Christian and white supremacist bent), provided most of the editorial content. Subjects included Texas and national politics, moral tales, poetry and short stories. But Bonner's main preoccupation was with the Race Question, which he reduced to fairly simple terms: "Take any city in the South - I care not where it is located - line up every negro man inside the corporation, and I will guarantee that 80 per cent are eating more than they earn or produce, and that they obtain said livelihood either by petty theft or from the labor or vice of the negro women ... Now, I just pause to ask - Isn't that a hell of an aggregation that is clamoring for equal rights, equal privileges, and social recognition with free-born, pure-blooded American white men and women?" Feature articles include a mass lynching in Sabine County, Texas (Bonner was not opposed); the "Ethnological Status" of the Negro (beast, not man); Miscegenation in Delaware; Forced deportation of Negroes to Liberia, etc. OCLC notes 8 holding institutions, most in Texas.

8. BLACKSCHLEGER, Herb
Hide!

Boston: Meador Publishing Company, 1959. Octavo (21cm). Maroon faux-leather boards; dustjacket; 297pp; illus. Inscribed by the author on front endpaper, dated "April 10, AK113." Clean, tight copy in pictorial dustwrapper with a few small chips to edges; Very Good. The use of the Klan dating system ("AK" being an acronym for "Anno Klan") would suggest that the inscription dates from ca. 1978.

The author, a right-wing Christian conspiracist, attacks communism, socialism, and capitalism in equal measure, along with evolutionary theory, modern psychology, vaccination, and practical jokes. The general tenor of the book can be gathered from the caption to a cartoon on page 103: "An entire nation brainwashed for decades by mind-control experts and by text books which should be burned." Includes a chapter on food additives. Roughly half of the text is set in all caps.

9. BRITTON, Frank L. (ed)

The American Nationalist. Six issues, together with several broadsides and promotional circulars

Inglewood, CA: American Nationalist, 1954-7. Varying formats & conditions. Six issues of Britton's bi-weekly American Nationalist newsletter; two broadsides; one other racist circular; order blanks and return envelopes. Together, eleven pieces. Includes the following issues: Vol 2 (1954), nos. 19-20, 24, 26; Vol 4 (1956), no. 51; Vol 5 (1957), no. 51. One broadside advertises Operation Nightmare: The Story of America's Betrayal in Korea and the United Nations; the second is an anti-mongrelization tract, with several halftones of inter-racial couples above alarmist captions. Also includes a small (8cm x 22cm) hand-bill proclaiming that "U. of Michigan Co-eds Okay Mixed Dates." A few pieces with light edgewear and soiling; Good to Very Good.

American Nationalist was the racist and anti-Semitic house organ of Frank L. Britton, a California anti-Communist crusader who was one of the first to announce the presence anti-American influences in Hollywood. Content of the current issues is about equally divided between Jew-baiting and exposure of the plot to "mongrelize" the United States through interracial marriage (also, not surprisingly, a Jewish plot).

10. CAPELL, Frank

Robert F. Kennedy: Emerging American Dictator

Zarephath, NJ: Herald of Freedom, 1968. Quarto (28cm). Mimeographed, staple-bound wrappers; 18pp. Closed tear to rear wrapper; minor external soil; Very Good.

Extreme right-wing attack on Robert F. Kennedy, intended to de-rail Kennedy's 1968 Presidential campaign. From the pen of the Kennedys' arch-nemesis, the racist, anti-communist, anti-Semitic conspiracy theorist Frank Alphonse Capell. Connects the Kennedy clan to an international communist conspiracy; assails Kennedy for forcing integration on an unwilling South, and accuses him of covering up the murder of Marilyn Monroe (for which see also Item 12 below).

Capell was the editor of The Herald Of Freedom, a right-wing newsletter issued from the historic Klan enclave of Zarephath, New Jersey.

11. CAPELL, Frank A.
The Strange Death of Marilyn Monroe

(Staten Island, NY): The Herald of Freedom, 1964. Octavo (24cm). Pictorial red staplebound wrappers, 70pp, illus. One of two different editions published in 1964, of undetermined priority. Fine.

An investigation by Frank A. Capell, right wing anti-communist crusader and editor of the bi-weekly publications The Herald of Freedom and Metropolitan Review. Capell claims Marilyn Monroe's death was not a suicide but rather a plot by the communist politicians and celebrities surrounding her (these were reputed to include Robert Kennedy, Rep. Emanuel Celler, publicist Pat Newcomb, and Monroe's doctor, Hyman Engelberg). Capell was the first journalist to allege a romantic connection between Monroe and RFK.

13. [CITIZENS' COUNCIL OF GREATER NEW ORLEANS]

Broadside: NOTICE! To All White Citizens Greetings: Stop Buying Ford Cars and Trucks and other Ford Products

New Orleans: Citizens' Council of Greater New Orleans, N.d. [ca 1966]. Small broadside (ca 22cm x 15cm - 9" x 6"). Printed recto only, in black ink on newsprint. Paper slightly aged; corner-creases; Very Good or better.

Calls for a boycott on Ford products because "for years...Ford profits have been distributed to integration and civil rights organizations to fight the white people of the South, by forcing them to associate with negroes." Undated, but we note that other extant versions of this circular, printed on both sides of the sheet, reprint a 1966 New Orleans Times-Picayune article. The New Orleans Citizens' Council had long historical connections with the Louisiana Klan; it was organized in the mid-1950s by the prominent segregationist politician Leander Perez.

14. CLOSE, Upton [pseud Josef Washington Hall] and John Howland SNOW
The Plan to Enslave Congress and You (Revealed and Documented)

Washington: Broadcasts Inc., 1950. Octavo (23cm). Printed card wrappers; 96pp. Inscribed on front wrapper by Upton Close, to "Patriot Perkins." Mild external wear; Very Good.

A supposed expose of Socialist influence in Congress, with dire warnings of the liberal Democrats' plan to "impose total state control" on the American people. "Upton Close," the pseudonym of Josef Washington Hall (1894-1960), was a popular right-wing radio commentator and pamphleteer. He rose to prominence during the Great Depression as a strident New Deal critic; after WWII he became closely affiliated with the anti-Semitic propagandist Gerald L.K. Smith.

World Dictatorship by 1955? Why Forrestal Threw Himself Out of The Window

Framlingham, Suffolk: Nationalist Information Bureau, 1951. 12mo (18cm). Original printed wrappers; 77pp. Wrappers, front and end matter somewhat foxed; text clean and tight; Good or better.

Maintains that James V. Forrestal, American Secretary of Defense under Truman, committed suicide over remorse at having been used as an unwitting tool in the vast Zionist conspiracy. "The existance [sic] of a conspiracy for enslaving the world can no longer be denied...the great conspiracy aims at establishing a one-world super-government to rule over a tamed and conquered humanity..." 16. COUGHLIN, Rev. Charles E. (ed)
Social Justice. Vol I, no. 1 (March 13, 1936)

Royal Oak, MI: Social Justice Publishing Company, 1936. Tabloid (41cm). On newsprint; 16pp; illus. Horizontal mailing-fold; slight raggedness to page margins; Good.

First issue of Father Charles Coughlin's right-wing weekly. Marked "Sample Copy" in left margin; according to the introductory essay, 500,000 copies were printed of the first issue. Includes several anti-New Deal articles, a long indictment of the Federal Reserve, and an attack on CBS for giving air time to Earl Browder. Coughlin was perhaps the most widely influential anti-Semite in the history of American political discourse; his weekly radio broadcasts numbered over 10 million listeners.

19. FRY, L.
Waters Flowing Eastward: The War Against the Kingship of Christ

London: Britons Publishing Society, 1953. Fourth Edition, considerably revised and enlarged. Small octavo (19cm); maroon cloth boards, lettered in gilt on spine; dustjacket; 267pp. With printed memorial to the Reverend Denis Fahey, signed in print by Fry, applied to front endpaper. Volume slightly dusty and worn, with board-corners bumped; prelims and rear matter moderately foxed; jacket with a few chips and closed tears; Good to Very Good, and better than usually seen for this cheaply-made book.

First printing of the substantially revised 1953 edition. First published in 1931, this widely-quoted anti-Semitic "classic" maintains the veracity of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion and proclaims the evils of political Zionism. This edition prepared under the editorial direction of the anti-Semitic Irish priest Denis Fahey. SINGERMAN 0882.

18. [FIGHTING AMERICAN NATIONALISTS] WHITE, C.
Broadside: Wanted Dead Or Alive

Hendersonville, NC: Fighting American Nationalists, 1975. Broadside, 11" x 8-1/2" (ca. 28 x 22cm). Printed recto-only on a single sheet of standard xerographic paper. Original mailing folds; margins toned; Good.

Broadside simulating a typical "Wanted" poster, depicting an African-American in caricature; the subject is identified as "Levi Coon," alias "Jigaboo, Baboon, Ape....he has been known to be led by communist Jews in a conspiracy to destroy America and the White race. He is believed to be armed with a razor, a gas bomb, a Star of David, and a bottle of Sweet Lucy wine." One of the more horrific pieces of racist propaganda we have encountered. The "Fighting American Nationalists" was a racist hate group, reputedly established by George Lincoln Rockwell in the mid-1960s as a front for the American Nazi Party.

22. [HUBBARD, L. Ron]
Brain-Washing. A Synthesis of the Russian Text Book on Psychopolitics. Including an Address by Beria, Formerly Head of the Russian Secret Police

Burbank: American Public Relations Forum, [ca 1958]. Staple-bound pamphlet. Textured buff wrappers, printed in black; 56pp. Clean, bright and unmarked; Near Fine. Early reprint of this infamous forgery, originally published in 1955 and falsely attributed to the Chief of Stalin's Secret Police. This issue contains the two sections of remarks by Rep. Usher Burdick of North Dakota, but not the Preface which was added for the 1959 edition. Issued under the imprint of the American Public Relations Forum, a conservative Catholic women's group founded in 1952.

Called by David Seed "one of the strangest publications of the Cold War," Brain-Washing purports to reprint a secret Soviet document on mass mind-control techniques. Among the document's many astounding claims is that "every chair of psychology in the United States is occupied by persons in our [Communist] connection." Hubbard himself began distributing the pamphlet to law enforcement agencies as early as 1955; the forgery was sufficiently sophisticated to be taken seriously by Eisenhower's National Security Council (see SEED, Brainwashing: the Fictions of Mind Control, Kent: 2004). While authorship has long been attributed to Hubbard, no one to our knowledge has drawn the clear connection between this pamphlet and the contemporary hysteria surrounding the Alaska Mental Health Bill of 1956, widely decried as the "Siberia Act" by conservative conspiracy theorists who claimed the law would be used to subject anyone outside the liberal political mainstream to psychiatric testing and, of course, subsequent banishment.

24. [ILLUMINATI CONSPIRACY] FAGAN, Myron

Illuminati: The Council on Foreign Relations. Expose by Myron Fagan. Volumes 1-3

Hollywood: Cinema Educational Guild, 1967. Three 12" vinyl audio discs, in original pictorial card jackets and anti-static archival inner sleeves (probably later). Discs in fine playing condition, with excellent gloss to vinyl, free of scratches; apparently unplayed. Jackets show trivial external rubbing and wear; Near Fine.

Rare set of audio recordings by Myron Fagan, purporting to reveal "...the beginning of the One-World enslavement plot that was launched two centuries ago by one Adam Weishaupt, an apostate Catholic Priest, who, financed by the House of Rothschild, created what he called THE ILLUMINATI." Jacket copy provides instructions for use, including: "Play this for the unaware, uninformed and well meaning people who desire to hear the truth - Don't waste your time on the hard core socialists who have already repudiated principle."

25. [ILLUMINATI CONSPIRACY] FAGAN, Myron C.

U.N. Is U.S. Cancer

Hollywood, CA: Cinema Education Guild, 1952. Small octavo (20cm). Printed card wrappers; 28pp. Mild external wear; Near Fine.

Anti-communist attack on the United Nations, based on an address to the Fellows of the Cinema Educational Guild in 1952. Fagan (1887-1972) began his career as a Hollywood screenwriter in the Thirties; during the Depression he became increasingly interested in far right causes and the International Conspiracy; by the late Forties he had founded the Cinema Education Guild to expose what he saw as the looming "communist conspiracy in Hollywood." Fagan was a key figure in the development of the modern "Illuminati" conspiracy, which contends that a shadowy, internationalist cabal, composed of politicians and financiers and organized through the Council on Foreign Relations, is plotting for world domination (see Item 24, above).

26. [INTERNATIONAL JEWISH CONSPIRACY] [ARCAND, Adrien]

The [KEY] to the Mystery. Almost suddenly the world in general, and all countries in particular, have been thrown into a real hell...

Chicago: Women's Voice, [1955]. Tabloid (47cm); 16pp. Horizontal and vertical folds from mailing (presumably as issued), with brief loss at central fold (without loss of sense); covers lightly foxed; brief chips to margins; still Very Good.

According to Singerman, this is a reprint of a brochure originally issued in 1934 by the Ligue Feminine Anti-Communiste de Montreal, regarded by one authority "as undoubtedly the most vicious defamation of the Jewish people ever published in Canada." Authorship has been attributed, with good basis, to the Canadian fascist politician Adrien Arcand. An advertisement for Arcand's National Unity Party of Canada appears on p.15 of the current version. 29. [KU KLUX KLAN]

The Klan Unmasked

N.p., N.d. [1922?]. Small octavo (19cm). Staple-bound pamphlet. Original printed wrappers; 14pp. Light wear and soil; ink hand-stamp to front cover ("St. Vincent's Catholic Church"); Very Good.

Anonymously-produced anti-Klan leaflet, possibly published for distribution at anti-Klan rallies. Collects statements from the popular press discrediting the Klan's literature and activities; since much of the content attacks the Klan's statements against Catholicism, we assume the sponsoring organization to have been a Catholic church, parish, or diocese, possibly in the South. Uncommon; OCLC gives only one institutional holding (Duke). Not to be confused with the rather common 1923 book by W.J. Simmons, also titled The Klan Unmasked.

The Seven Symbols of The Klan. Imperial Instructions Document No. II. Series A.D. 1960, A.K. LXXXXIV. Being Official Instructions in K-uno in the border Realm of Karacter [&c...]

N.p. [Tuscaloosa, AL]; Office of the Imperial Wizard, 1960. Tri-fold brochure, 22cm; single sheet folded to make 6pp. Front cover graphic of a hooded Klansman on horseback. Fine.

Brief exegeses on each of the seven "sacred symbols" of the Klan: The Bible, The Cross, The Flag, The Sword, The Water, The Robe and The Hood. Of the latter, the author writes: "...Who can look upon a multitude of white robed Klansmen without thinking of the equality and unselfishness of that throng of white robed saints in the GLORY LAND?" An uncommon Klan item; OCLC gives one location only (Wisconsin Historical Soc).

31. GAFFNEY, Albert Sydney

The Son of a Klansman

Kansas City: Franklin Hudson Publishers, (1926). Octavo (19cm). Publisher's tan pictorial cloth boards, stamped in brown; dustjacket; 317pp; illus. Bit of rubbing at tips of corners; ownership markings; else a tight, Near Fine copy in the very fragile and uncommon pictorial dustwrapper, substantially complete but with small losses at spine ends, flap folds, and rear panel (not affecting text). Three leaves of plates by Frederick C. Dahn.

An "allegorical, historical novel" set in the Kentucky mountains and the Philippines during the Spanish-American War. A rough-hewn but decent hillbilly does battle against a scheming rival, at home and abroad. The KKK theme is tangential, but the author clearly regards the values of the Klan, and its "wonderful work in restoring peace and good will in the South after the war," as laudable. Of Albert Sydney Gaffney we find no biographical information in the expected sources. Based on the book's very detailed (if atrociously-written) accounts of the Philippine conflict, we suspect he had first-hand experience in the Spanish-American War. A somewhat uncommon book, moreso in dustwrapper. Despite a pronounced Kentucky hillbilly theme, missed by Boger.

The Klan's Answer To Lyndon Johnson

On Friday, March 26, 1965, Lyndon Johnson, President of the United States, attacked one of the most patriotic organizations in this great land. He warned every Klansman to get out of the Ku Klux Klan and to join a "decent" society for the Klan was going to be investigated and destroyed.

Lyndon Johnson, we know that we are not a perfect organization. We have a few misfits just as surely as there has been a misfit recently elected President of the United States. We do not advocate murder in any form for any cause, yet you condemn an entire organization for the actions of a few and they have yet to be proven guilty. We do not condemn everyone in the Democratic Party for your actions, Lyndon Johnson.

No, Lyndon, you are wrong about the Ku Klux Klan. You can no more destroy us than you can destroy the heavens or the oceans. Even with all your ill-gotten and ill-used Power—the Left Wing News Media the N.A.A.C.P., C.O.R.E. and all of the other Socialistic and Communistic rabble rousers—we will survive. For, while there is a flicker of life in one true Klansman, the Klan will never die.

It is you, Lyndon Johnson, that has turned his back on the white people of this country, not the Ku Klux Klan. It is you, Lyndon Johnson, who should join a "decent" society. It was you, Lyndon Johnson, that expressed shock and anger when an agitator was killed in Alabama. You even telephoned your sympathy to her family. Yet when a white Law Officer is murdered by niggers in Mississippi you did not see fit to mention it or telephone his widow. Were you not shocked and angered by this, Lyndon? Where is your sense of "decency"?

So bring on your investigations, Lyndon. We have nothing to fear, for we know that ours is a just cause. Our fight is for racial integrity and Constitutional Government. Are we fighting for too much, Lyndon? The Klan will disband when every Communist and Integrationist is driven from our shores. We will fight with every means at our disposal—the ballot box, in the swamps, or in the hills, if necessary, for we shall never surrender!

THIS IS OUR ANSWER!!

Tupelo, MS: Ku Klux Klan, N.d. (ca 1965-67). (1) Recruiting brochure, printed on two sides of a single 20cm x 27cm sheet, designed as a tri-fold leaflet (but this copy unfolded, apparently unissued); Fine. (2) Small broadside (22cm x 28cm), printed recto-only in green ink; text in two columns; Fine.

Two items printed and issued by the Tupelo, Mississippi branch of the KKK at the height of the Civil Rights movement. Both items offer the standard mix of racist, anti-Semitic, and anti-Communist arguments for the decline of American civilization. The recruiting brochure makes reference to Brown vs. Board of Education, stating that “...the NAACP is a subversive organization, and is infiltrated with Communist ideologies [sic] and should be abolished by legal means.” The broadside decries the gradual brainwashing of the average American by the “red poison” of “impostors with forged credentials claiming great knowledge as physicians and patriots...television, radio, newspaper, church literature, magazines, and school books were injected and placed in the hands of the illiterate and the very young....our communication systems are being used by the communist party to brainwash our young people, as well as a few of the not too bright adults...”

41. [KU KLUX KLAN] [ALABAMA] TEPPER, Sol H.
Ten Big Questions Regarding the Death of Reverend Reeb in Selma, Alabama

Selma, AL: by the Author, 1966. Quarto (28cm); [7pp], with additional laid-in material. Faint foxing to a few leaves, else Very Good.

Leaflet written and distributed by a Selma resident in the wake of the James Reeb murder trial. Reeb, a Unitarian minister, was beaten to death by a white mob on the streets of Selma in March, 1965. Three men were arrested, but were acquitted by an all-white jury. The present work contends that the evidence in the case implicated not Reeb's white assailants but rather Reeb's colleagues in SNCC and Rev. King himself: "...King was in need of a martyr...the various groups preaching racial hatred such as SLICK, SNICK, CORE, and the NAACP and others....were unable to produce such a martyr after weeks and weeks of the most terrible and perilous agitation that a group ever inflicted upon a formerly quiet, peaceful, law-abiding city...it is not too difficult to see who would benefit from Reverend Reeb's death." Tepper claims that Reeb's SNCC companions intentionally delayed his transportation to a hospital, then purposefully aggravated his injuries during the ambulance ride.

Laid in are a number of ancillary materials, all relating to the 1965 incidents in Selma. Included are a 4-pp letter for mass mailing written by Selma Sheriff James Clark, justifying his department's actions during the marches and casting any blame for the violence on President Johnson; two small mimeographed broadsides with racist content; an offprint from The Congressional Record of April 27, 1965, giving the testimony of Alabama congressman William L. Dickinson; and, finally, a recruiting brochure for the Selma branch of the Ku Klux Klan.

Together, six items. It is unclear whether these materials were printed simultaneously to comprise a "recruiting packet" for the Selma Klan, or if they were simply gathered and assembled by a previous owner. Their stylistic and topical cohesion would suggest the former, but as none of these items has been catalogued by an OCLC member institution, either together or individually, we can offer nothing better than conjecture. In any case, we offer the items as a group, as found by us.

What Higher Cotton Prices Mean To Each State

To Governor Sterling and the Legislature of Texas, and to the governors and legislatures of the cotton-producing states outside Louisiana?

The table which appears below shows what all the cotton farmers of all 48 states of the Southern States would receive on the Government's crop advance for their cotton at five cents a pound—the present price to the farmer. The Governor of Louisiana believes that the advance of the Louisiana crop to other Southern States would bring $10,000,000 to Louisiana farmers for their cotton instead of $11,000,000. If he is right, Louisiana cotton growers would receive 10 cent more every five million dollars more for this year's crop.

In this case, Texas cotton farmers would receive $75,000,000 more for this year's crop.

The cotton will come of North Carolina, and of the world, would have to pay this additional sum for their cotton.

Three million owners pay millions of dollars a year to get information on cotton. These figures are assumed and printed to give the cotton farmers a few figures of their own on this subject.

States, Bales	At 5c Per Lb.	At 10c	At 15c	At 20c

NOTE.—The U. S. Bureau of Census shows reports from 1,861,120 cotton bales in 1930. The figure 1,200,000 is used in accordance with the average for capital annual each farmer would receive at each price: At 5c, $194.50; at 10c, $389.00; at 15c, $583.50; at 20c, $778.00.

What will we have, Prosperity or Poverty? Will we quibble and modify against what other states are willing to do? The fight to prohibit cotton planting in 1932 is a big fight against the speculators who have already sold your cotton at slash prices for you. Will the legislators stand for the blood and bone of the people or for Mammon? Will they stand to put clothes and shoes on the women and children of the farmers of the State of Texas, or will they stand to help Hoover's Farm Board and the Cotton Exchange pilfer the people's right for a chance to live.

HUEY P. LONG,
Governor State of Louisiana, United States
Senator-Elect, Chairman Southern Cotton
Conference.

The Spirit and Purpose of Huey Long Shall Never Die

Carry On, Oh Comrades, Carry On!

To all Members of the Share-Our-Wealth Society

Beloved Comrades:

Our leader has fallen in the line of duty at the hands of an assassin. The flesh of Huey Long is dead but his spirit lives. He died for us. His spirit shall live as long as little children are hungry; as long as there is nakedness in this, the land of plenty; as long as there is starvation in the land of too much, the voice of our leader and founder of our organization cannot be stilled.

You will hear and read all sorts of lies and misrepresentations concerning the future of our organization, therefore, bear the following in mind:

1. The Share-Our-Wealth Society will go on as never before until our ideals are accomplished.
2. Call a meeting of your Society and conduct a memorial service in honor of our leader.
3. I have spoken to every man who holds a position of influence in our State government from our beloved Governor, O. K. Allen, on down. No matter what lies you may read in the newspapers or hear on the street, believe me, when I tell you that these leaders are standing together as one man to carry on the work of Huey Long. All political decisions will be announced by our Governor, O. K. Allen.
4. I have been visiting with the common people from the shops, from the mills and from the farms. Hundreds of them have called on me in Baton Rouge and said: "Dr. Smith, this tragedy only binds us together all the stronger."
5. Cheap politicians, Wall Street gangsters, lying newspapers will taunt you and try your patience, but do not under any circumstances resort to violence or physical encounters. The blood of Huey Long shall be avenged in the election in January when we win a new victory in his name as he would have it won—with ballots.
6. I was at the bedside of Senator Long before he died. He breathed this prayer on his deathbed: "Oh Lord, don't let me die. I have a few more things to do." The work which he left undone, we must complete.

GERALD L. K. SMITH, Organizer,

50. LONG, Huey P. Broadside: The Share Our Wealth Principles. Roosevelt Promised to Fulfill Them: Hoover Declared Them His 'Conception of America' - But Only Organized Societies Can Force the Keeping of Such Pledges

N.p., n.d. [Washington, 1935?]. Tall folio broadside, 51cm x 28cm. Printed both sides; text in three columns. Old folds for mailing (as issued), else Very Good. Together with two offprints from the Congressional Record, reprinting Senate speeches by Long (dated July 19 and 23, 1935); and original mailing envelope with Long's printed signature.

An attack on FDR's New Deal and a summary of the principles of Long's competing "Share Our Wealth" plan, which included a homesteading allowance to every American family; a minimum guaranteed income; restrictions on agricultural production and man hours; and old age pensions, all to be supported "...from the reduction of swollen fortunes from the top." A highly characteristic offering from the charismatic Louisiana populist, issued at the height of his popularity and influence and not more than two months before his assassination in September, 1935.

51. [LONG, Huey P.] SMITH, Gerald K. The Spirit and Purpose of Huey Long Shall Never Die. Carry On, Oh Comrades, Carry On! To all Members of the Share-Our-Wealth Society

Broadside, 28cm x 21.5 cm (ca 11" x 8.5"), printed recto only. Text printed in two columns. Mild toning to paper; a few small nicks to margins; Very Good.

A Share-Our-Wealth broadside issued immediately after Huey P. Long's assassination in 1935, announcing: "Beloved Comrades: Our leader has fallen in the line of duty at the hands of an assassin. The flesh of Huey Long is dead but his spirit lives [...]. I was at the bedside of Senator Long before he died. He breathed this prayer on his deathbed: 'Oh Lord, don't let me die. I have a few more things to do.'" Smith outlines six action points for Share-Our-Wealth supporters, insisting "The Share-Our-Wealth Society will go on as never before until our ideals are accomplished [...]. the blood of Huey Long shall be avenged in the election in January when we win a new victory in his name..." A very early document from the pen of Gerald L.K. Smith, who would go on to prominence in the McCarthy era as an ultranationalist, anti-Semitic, white supremacist rabble-rouser (see items 68 & 69, below)—evidence, were further evidence needed, of the nativist and fascist tendencies of the Kingfish's political machine. Scarce and important broadside, possibly the first published account of Long's oft-quoted (and probably apocryphal) deathbed prayer. OCLC gives two locations (Historic New Orleans Collection & UC Davis).

52. MARSDEN, Victor E. ("transl")

Protocols of Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion. Translated from the Russian of Text by Victor E. Marsden... [COVER TITLE: "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion"]

N.p., n.d. [Chicago: Women's Voice, ca 1955?]. Octavo (23pp). Printed white self-wrappers; 96pp. Covers slightly discolored; scattered faint foxing; Good or better.

No catalog of this nature would be complete without at least one edition of this infamous forgery. The current edition is a cipher: issued entirely sans imprint, but with the ink hand-stamp of the Chicago anti-semitic publisher Women's Voice inside rear wrapper. This would appear to be an unauthorized reproduction of one of the many Britons Publishing Society editions issued in the 1940s and 50s, but if so it has clearly been entirely re-set (typed by hand) and reprinted. The most complete bibliography of editions of The Protocols is Singerman's Antisemitic Propaganda (1982), but we can find no corresponding edition in that reference.

53. [MARTIN LUTHER KING] [HIGHLANDER FOLK SCHOOL]

Broadside: Martin Luther King...At Communist Training School

[Athens, GA]: Georgia Commission on Education. N.d. (ca 1957). Broadside, printed recto-only on a single legal-size sheet (ca 36cm x 22cm). Thirteen lines of text and central graphic. Corner and edge tears; soiled and stained, with large boot-impression on verso; still Good and complete, with no losses to text or graphic.

The graphic reproduces a photograph of Martin Luther King, Abner W. Berry, Aubrey Williams, and Myles Horton in a classroom of the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee. The text identifies these subjects, calling them the "four horsemen of racial agitation...[who] have brought tension, disturbance, strife and violence in the advancement of the Communist doctrine of 'racial nationalism.'"

The Highlander Folk School was founded by Don West and Myles Horton in 1953 as a training facility for southern civil rights workers; it was the frequent subject of attacks from anti-integrationists. The present broadside, issued under the auspices of the Georgia Commission on Education, is similar to another, larger broadside we have encountered signed in print by Georgia Governor Marvin Griffin. Given the nature of its wear, this copy appears to have been recovered from a rally or demonstration. OCLC notes only two locations (CSU Sacramento & Historic New Orleans Collection).

54. MOSLEY, Oswald

Fascism Explained. 10 Points of Fascist Policy

N.p. [London?]: British Union of Fascists, 1933. Small octavo (19cm). Staple-bound pamphlet; original pictorial wrappers; 9pp. Ink stamps of the British Union of Fascists to front and rear covers; moderate external soiling; grease-pencil notation to front cover; still Good or better. Contents appear to be from the initial 1933 printing of 1,000,000 copies, but in later issue wrappers, with rear cover advertising a speech by Walter Mosley in Durham, Feb. 18th, 1936. This issue possibly produced for distribution at that rally.

An early Mosley work, providing his ten-point plan for British Fascism, including a section on "Aliens and International Finance" in which he promises to "deal with the great alien financiers of the City of London who use the financial power of Britain in the interests, not of this country, but of foreign countries..." An interesting copy; we have not seen another example hand-stamped with the seal of the B.U.F.

London: Printed by David Allen Printing Company, N.d. [1931?]. 12mo (18cm). Staple-bound pamphlet. Bright orange wrappers, printed in black; 12pp. Slightly soiled at spine, else Near Fine.

Includes Mosley's Statement to the Press announcing the Formation of "The New Party;" letters of resignation to the Prime Minister from M.P.'s John Strachey, Robert Forgan, and Lady Cynthia Mosley; and letters of resignation to the Labour Party from Oliver Baldwin and W.E.D. Allen.

Very scarce remnant from Mosley's short-lived "New Party," which he formed immediately upon his resignation from the Labour Party in late 1930. While not explicitly Fascist in its initial outline, The New Party moved progressively rightward following Mosley's European tour of 1931. In 1932 The New Party was absorbed into Mosley's British Union of Fascists. A scarce Mosley item; OCLC gives only one location (Michigan); not in British Library Catalogue.

Fascists At Olympia: A Record of Eye-Witnesses and Victims. Compiled by Vindicator

London: Victor Gollancz, 1934. Octavo (22cm). Staple-bound pamphlet; rust orange wrappers, printed in black; 48pp. Minor external toning and soil; Very Good.

Eye-witness accounts of the violent June 7, 1934 meeting of Mosley's Blackshirts at Olympia. Includes testimony from A.E. Coppard, Aldous Huxley, Vera Brittain, and many others. The Olympia meeting marked a decisive turning-point in the fortunes of the BUF: Mosley's "security forces," armed with knuckle-dusters and razors, inflicted serious injuries on several dozen hecklers. Mosley lost the subsequent propaganda battle over responsibility for the violence, and public sentiment began moving steadily against the Fascists from this time (see Thurlow, Fascism In Britain, Oxford: 1987).

Essay by the anti-Semitic conspiracist and career Pound apologist Eustace Mullins, apparently published to commemorate Pound's release, in 1958, from psychiatric incarceration at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Washington, D.C. "...the Jewish rats...hate Pound because he is all they can never be; he is true, just and courageous...now that Ezra Pound is free at last, we can rejoice that at the next encounter, he will be riding beside us in the lists. Evoe, Ezra!" Sans imprint, but the author makes repeated reference to the ultraconservative, anti-Semitic newspaper "The Women's Voice," to which he was a regular contributor and from which this piece appears to have been reprinted. Includes a single halftone portrait of Pound and several excerpts from his Cantos. Rare; not located in OCLC; not in Gallup; not in Singerman.

58. MULLINS, Eustace
Typed Manuscript: "The Senator"

Original typed manuscript of approximately 50,000 words (98 single-spaced, legal-sized leaves), with many holograph additions and corrections. On various paper stocks; occasional splits, tears, or stains to pages, but no loss to text. Apparently complete as written (but at least partially out of order, and apparently never finished). Together with ca. 45 leaves of various manuscript fragments, some autobiographical, and including an incomplete article titled "Ezra Pound - The Artist as Vengeance." With two original mailing envelopes addressed in Mullins's hand.

A substantial, unpublished novelistic fragment by this prominent Virginia fascist and racist author, best remembered for his very public (and eventually successful) campaign to free Ezra Pound during the period of Pound's incarceration at St. Elizabeth's Hospital following WWII.

The novel follows the political career of Harry Markham Ward, a southern politician in the mold of Bilbo and Faubus, in his political ascent from small-time county autocrat to U.S. Senator. Though Ward seems to rise to power by successfully suppressing the activities of the KKK in his home county, the novel's principal theme is White Supremacy - Mullins's essential argument being that race wars are most effectively conducted by well-educated members of the economic elite, and not by lawless vigilantism.

Additional manuscript material includes a 5-pp article (apparently incomplete) titled "Ezra Pound - The Artist as Vengeance;" plus ca. 40 leaves of random, unedited drafts, all single-spaced, comprising stream-of-consciousness ramblings on various topics including the international Jewish conspiracy, mongrelization of the races, the assassination of Robert Kennedy, etc.

Eustace Mullins (1923-2010), born in Roanoke, Virginia and a graduate of Washington & Lee University, spent the final 40 years of his life in Staunton, Virginia. He was the author of more than 75 books and pamphlets, nearly all of a racist, anti-Semitic, or conspiracist character. His most widely-read and most influential work is still The Secrets of the Federal Reserve, a book which he claimed was inspired by Ezra Pound. His work is still widely cited by followers and promoters of the "International Conspiracy" school.

Broadside: Negro Is Related to Apes -- Not White People

Marietta, GA: The Thunderbolt, Inc., N.d. [ca 1964-5]. Quarto broadside (36cm), printed in black ink on both sides of a standard ledger-sized sheet. Recto headline states: "Negro Is Related to Apes -- Not White People." Verso headline: "Scientists Say Negro Still In Ape Stage - Races Positively Not Equal." With four illustrations. Minor edgewear; Very Good.

Scurrilous racist broadside issued by The Thunderbolt, official organ of the National States Rights Party, a neo-Nazi group active in the mid-1960s. Offers the standard pseudo-scientific tropes regarding Negro inferiority (reduced brain size; prognathous jaw; prehensile toes, etc); then concludes: "As the black genes of the Negro are more powerful than white genes - the Negro has thereby destroyed every white civilization that he has come in contact with or has left that civilization stagnant and rotting and dependent upon the last drop of white blood from outside to keep it going. Mongrelization of the Races Would Destroy White Christian Civilization." Also includes a brief discourse on the "Two-toed Vadoma Tribe," whose members can "run like the wind, scale trees." Columbus, OH: Bourke House Publishers, 1970. Octavo (23cm). Original red cloth boards, lettered in black on front cover; 217pp. Inscribed by the author on second blank, undated. Fine, lacking jacket.

Right-wing attack on the Warren Supreme Court, with specific reference to the case of Gideon Vs. Wainwright, which ruled that all defendants had a right to legal representation, regardless of their ability to pay. The author contends that this ruling was directly to blame for the “ever increasing speed” with which the commission of violent crimes increased during the decade of the 1960s. Includes a chapter on “The Obligations of the Black Man in America,” noting that African-Americans under slavery were better off than average citizens under Marxist communism.

The Corporate State of Britain: The Machinery of Fascism Explained

London: Alexander Ouseley Ltd, 1934. Small octavo (18.5cm). Original pictorial wrappers; 62pp. Covers lightly soiled; spine darkened; ownership signature; Good to Very Good.

The author was the founder and editor of the review British Fascism, and Director of the Fascist Parliamentary Association. In the present work he outlines his vision of the structure of a fascist Corporate State in Great Britain, noting that "...increasing numbers of Englishmen are becoming utterly disgusted with the decadent liberal-democracy in which we are living, and turning with enthusiasm and sincerity to the principles of Fascism..."

A foundation work, of sorts, for British Fascism, published shortly after Roe and the British Fascists' alliance with Oswald Mosley's British Union of Fascists. Notably uncommon; OCLC gives only two locations (Michigan State & University of Alberta); not at British Library.

SAVE THE CONSTITUTION

Stop Wars-Stop Drafts-Stop NATO-Kill the U. N.
We the People Must Use or Lose the Constitution

The constitution depends for existence on continued use by individuals. The only way the powers and rights therein can be invoked is by individuals. If the people in general fail in their duty to use the Constitution often, and fail to jump with both feet on the slightest infraction of its provisions, believe me we don't deserve it, and will lose it.

No Need For Amendment If the People Act

Most of the trouble we're in is in large part due to the fact that when elected officials fail to respect and enforce the Constitution, WE, THE PEOPLE, THINK that there is nothing we can do. The Constitution is, in essence, a line of limitation beyond which the elected Government can not pass. The question arises: Who's to stop them, if the Congress abdicates, and the courts wink? Let's face it: WE, THE PEOPLE, STOP THEM - THAT'S YOU AND ME.

Whether you're 18 or 80, male or female, rich or poor, that consideration depends on YOU.

How can you do it? Really, simply: IF YOU FACE YOUR INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY. One simple way is through the power of the purse. For example - I have never paid a cent of income tax because in 1947 I refused to do so on the ground that the first lend-lease bill was un-Constitutional. Outside of lots of nasty letters, NOT ONE ACTION HAS BEEN TAKEN AGAINST ME. You can refuse to pay another cent of Federal Tax until, IN YOUR JUDGMENT, the Federal Government starts living within the law. Five hundred

Further Development and Victory

8 February, 1954 . . . On being called by Mr. Fryland, I went to the offices of the Intelligence Section of the Internal Revenue Bureau, and there had a most interesting conversation lasting the greater part of two hours. Present were Mr. Fryland, Mr. Oliver O'Neill, and Mr. Gallagher representing the Bureau. These three gentlemen were extremely intelligent and obviously top echelon. They are fine Americans who would be a credit to any organization.

The Subject of the conversation was my Income Tax Return (Form 1040) which I had filed Blank on the grounds of the Fifth Amendment. I based my refusal on the principle that ALL FEDERAL TAXES are unlawful because the Constitution does not Authorize Congress to collect taxes for the support of foreign Government. Further, there is no provision in the sixteenth Amendment nullifying any privilege of the Fifth Amendment, therefore a citizen cannot be required to fill out any information beyond name and address on his tax forms. The point of this story is that none of these men could find anything in Law to refute my contentions, and boy they tried.

Furthermore, I found that these fine men were absolutely Shocked, when I pointed out how the Internal Revenue Act is the key and door to dictatorship, and completely unconstitutional. They had never thought of that. Anyway after two hours of pleasant talk, and it was clear that "they could find no wrong in me" we shook hands all around, the best of friends and I left without giving one iota of information about my 1953 income.

So my advice to all and sundry is simply this: STRICK TO THAT CONSTITUTION AND YOU HAVE NOTHING TO FEAR. P.S. The gentlemen DID admit that if a thousand Americans acted as I have, the entire Internal Revenue System would be blown Sky high. Yippee.

Tom Van Hyning

A man may be LOYAL to his GOVERNMENT, and yet OPPOSE the peculiar principles and methods of the ADMINISTRATION. 73. [VIGILANTISM] [MISSOURI] MORRIS, Lucile Bald Knobbers

Caldwell, ID: Caxton Printers, 1939. Octavo (24cm). Cloth boards; dustjacket; 253pp; illus. Pictorial endpapers. Fine, tight copy in the scarce pictorial dustjacket, mildly rubbed and frayed at extremities; Very Good. There is a lengthy gift inscription to the dedication leaf (following the copyright page) in which the inscriber states that he is a direct descendant of a member of the "Bald Knobbers" clan.

Quite nice copy of this uncommon Ozark history, the only full-length work we're aware of devoted to this little-known American vigilante organization. Originally formed by Civil War veterans as a secret peacekeeping and mutual-aid society, the Bald Knobbers evolved by the 1880s into a band of vigilante thugs who terrorized a several-county wide region of southern Missouri. While not specifically motivated by racist or anti-Semitic beliefs, the Bald Knobbers employed many of the same tactics as other Reconstruction Era terrorist organizations like the KKK and the Knights of the White Camelia, including the wearing of hoods, adoption of a secret code, and insistence on a strict vow of secrecy among members. The execution of several of the group's leaders in 1889 made national headlines and more or less put an end to their reign of terror, though rumors of hooded gunmen meting out secret justice persisted in the region through the 1920s.

72. VAN HYNING, Tom

Broadside: Save The Constitution / Stop Wars - Stop Drafts - Stop NATO - Kill the U.N. We The People Must Use or Lose the Constitution

[Chicago]: The Women's Voice, N.d. [ca 1954]. Broadside, 11" x 8-1/2" (28cm x 22cm), printed recto only on coated paper. Single horizontal fold (as issued); text printed in three columns.

Anti income-tax appeal by Tom Van Hyning: "...the Internal Revenue Act is the key and door to dictatorship, and completely unconstitutional...you can refuse to pay another cent of Federal Tax until, IN YOUR JUDGMENT, the Federal Government starts living within the law. Five hundred citizens INDIVIDUALLY acting thus would completely wreck the iniquitous Federal tax structure on which all the other iniquities depend..." The precise mechanism of such a collapse is left, alas, to the reader's imagination. The author's mother was Lyril Clark Van Hyning, founder and editor of the ultraconservative, anti-Semitic The Women's Voice, from which publication the present piece is reprinted. 75. [ZOMBIE YOUTH] NOEBEL, David A
Communism, Hypnotism and the Beatles: An Analysis of the Communist Use of Music - The Communist Master Music Plan

Tulsa: Christian Crusade Publications, 1965. Revised Third Edition. Octavo (21cm). Staple-bound pamphlet; illustrated wrappers; 26pp. Mild cover wear; sticker residue at base of front wrapper; Very Good.

Holy Norwegian Wood, Batman! - The British have invaded, and they've brought with them insidious secret Soviet techniques of Pavlovian mind-control: "...The destructive music of the Beatles merely reinforces the excitatory reflex of the youth to the point where it crosses the built-in inhibitory reflex. This in turn weakens the nervous system to a state where the youth actually suffers a case of artificial neurosis. And the frightening, even fatal, aspect of this mental breakdown process is the fact that these teenagers, in this excitatory, hypnotic state, can be told to do anything - and they will."

Sweet Jesus, we're not making this up.
